

FISCAL NOTE

HB 405 - SB 488

February 22, 2007

SUMMARY OF BILL: Authorizes local governments to enact local requirements for professional boxing, mixed martial arts, sparring, or wrestling matches, when rules or regulations for the sport have not been adopted or if the rules adopted are more stringent than the current state rules and regulations.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

MINIMAL

Assumptions:

- Local governments would be authorized to adopt more stringent rules for boxing, sparring or wrestling which are currently legal.
- Local governments could adopt more stringent rules for mixed martial arts but because mixed martial arts (with the exception of kickboxing) are illegal no more stringent rule could be adopted.
- Any more stringent rules for boxing, sparring, or wrestling would not result in additional expenditures for state investigators.
